

How much do you agree with the following sentences about the role of teachers in multireligious classes?

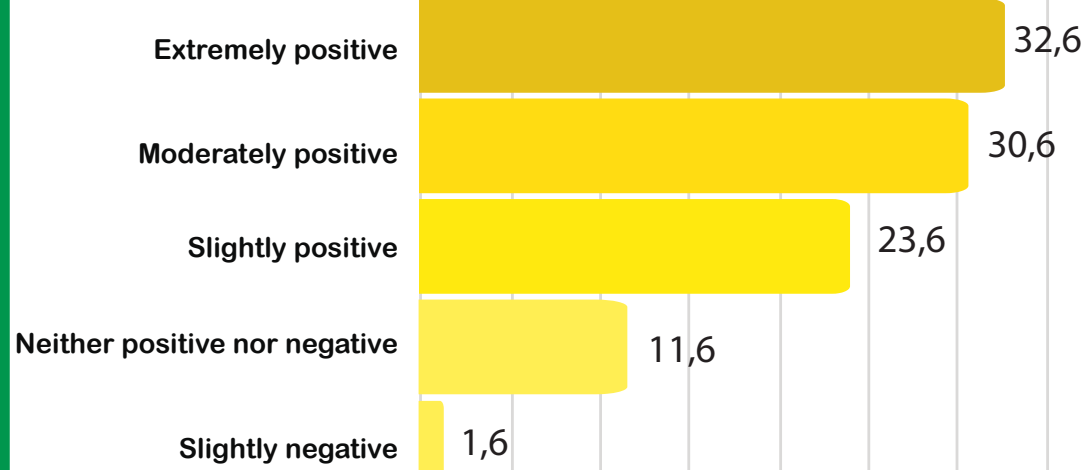

What is the most important competence required for teaching in multireligious classes?

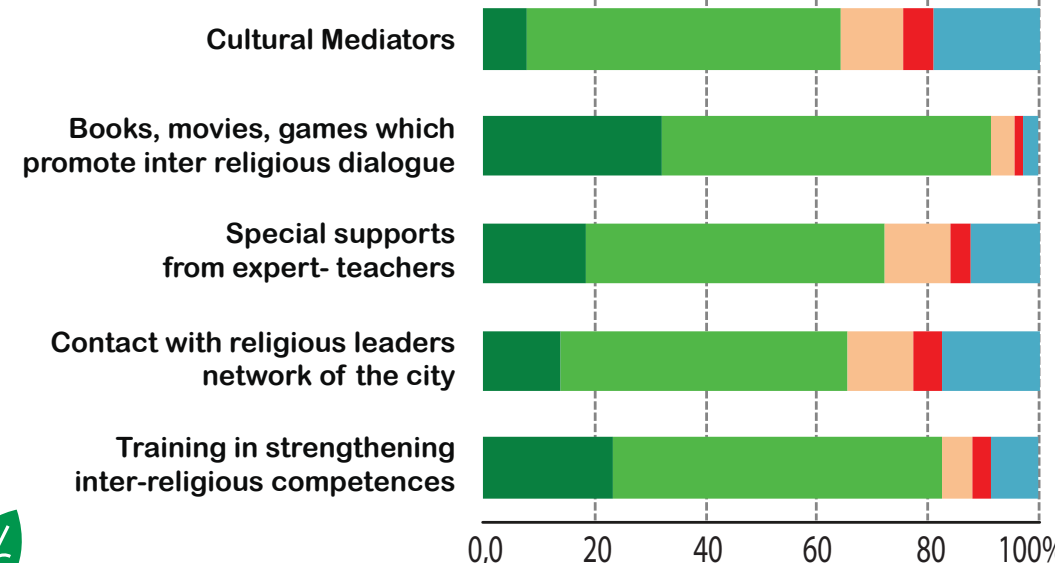

What is the most important personal skill/ ability required to teach in multireligious classes?

At a glance, how could you describe your experience dealing with the different religious backgrounds in your classes?

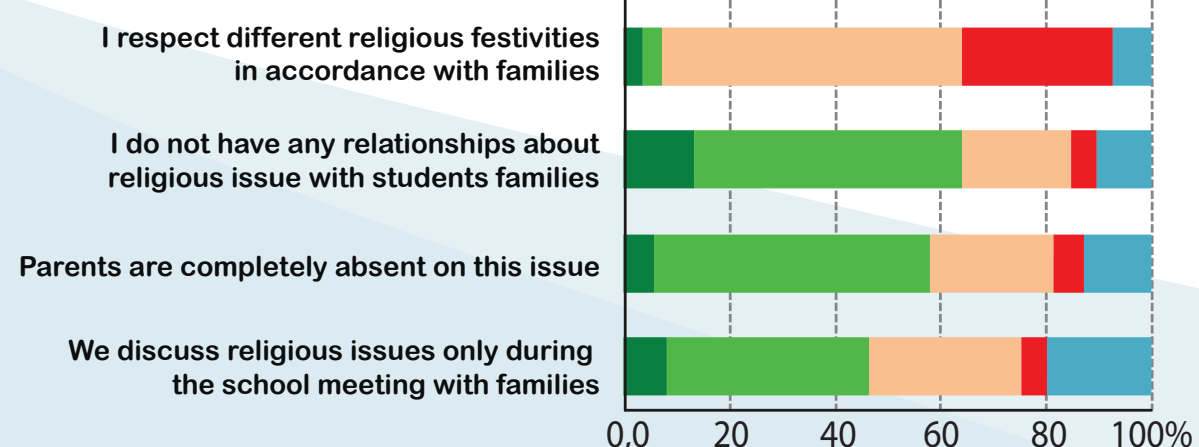

How much do you agree with the following support tools for teaching in multi-religious classes?

How much do you agree with the following strategies/proposals about teaching in multicultural classes (addressed to the teaching staff)?

How much do you agree with the following sentences about relationships with the students' families about religious issues?

Did you experience the following issues in multireligious classes?

